GIANTS' GAMES BOTH CALLED OFF.

Rain Prevents Double-Header in Boston To-Day - New York Begins Series with Brooklyn To-Morrow.

cial to The Evening World.) BOSTON, June 19 .- Rain blasted the opes of the Glants this afternoon. They had it all planned out how they were going to get out of that last place which they occupy now. They had expected to win both games from the ston team and counted on defeats for the Philadelphia, Cincinnati and St

If everything had come out that way Smith's men would have gone to Brooklyn to-morrow in fifth position. But

Strange what ambition the New Yorkers gained overnight. They have appeared all along entirely without it and just played the games because they ere paid for their work and because the schedule said they were to play. into the class of ex-Giants that caused the expressions of a new determination maybe it was Manager George Smith's proclamation that every man on the team must play his best, that they must not act stupidly during games under penalty of dismissal Anyhow, all the Giants expressed sorrow that they could not meet the Bostonians this afternoon. They were ashamed that the men of the Hub City had beaten them three times in two days, and they wanted to retrieve some their lost percentage and prestige If that feeling is not lost somewhere ! the Sound on the voyage via Fall River boat to New York Ned Hanton had better cease counting on sure victories over the New Yorkers for his Brooklyn
